PETITIONING THE COURT

CAUSE

In light of White testing positive for Marijuana on several occasions and failing to comply with drug testing, as a controlling measure, this officer requested a modification to the offender's supervision to include four (4) months of placement in the Residential Reentry Center (RRC). As a corrective measure, a condition requiring the offender to participate and successfully complete substance abuse treatment was also recommended. After being advised of his right to a hearing and counsel, Mr. White signed a Waiver to modify his conditions accordingly. On July 27, 2015, the modification was approved by Your Honor to add the following special conditions: Reside in Residential Re-entry Center and Substance Abuse Treatment.

On November 10, 2015, White completed a substance abuse treatment program at Choices Group, Inc. and was discharged successfully. White continues to have random substance abuse testing and is currently enrolled on code a phone drug testing. Although White has made notable progress and tested negative since the request for modification was made, he was a no show for testing on November 21, 2015, and was verbally admonished for this.

White was advised that due to his substance abuse issues at the beginning of supervision he was facing mandatory revocation; however, this officer requested the Court provide him with an opportunity to have the benefit of treatment which he now has. White was notified that any additional noncompliance with testing or any other conditions of probation and he would be brought back before the Court. White has stated that he understands and plans to cooperate fully with the Probation department to stay in compliance.

Due to the Bureau of Prison's (BOP) restrictions which allowed no bed space to be available for White to complete the Residential Re-entry sanction the condition was never satisfied and still remains outstanding. At this time, since the BOP still has the same restrictions and there is no bed space available now or in the foreseeable future, this officer requests the condition to Reside in the Residential Re-entry Center be removed.

In addition, this officer requests that White's location monitoring be extended for an additional 2 months in place of this removed sanction. White was originally sentenced to 8 months of location monitoring which would then bring him to a total of 10 months of location monitoring. White has agreed to the modification and signed a Waiver to modify his conditions accordingly.

It should be noted, that White has had no violations or issues while on location monitoring and has completed community service and is compliant with his restitution payments.
